COUNT 2 (Interstate Threats)

On or about March 4, 2019, at Kent, within the Western District of Washington, and elsewhere, CHASE BLISS COLASURDO knowingly and willfully transmitted in interstate and foreign commerce, from the State of Washington to another state, a communication, in the form of an Instagram post, that contained a threat to injure D.T. Jr.

All in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 875(c).

The undersigned complainant, Brian R. Lovelace, being duly sworn, further deposes and states as follows:

INTRODUCTION

- 1. I am a Special Agent ("SA") with the Federal Bureau of Investigation ("FBI"), and have been so employed since September 2018. I am currently assigned to the violent crime/organized crime squad in the Seattle, Washington office. As an FBI Special Agent, I have investigated a variety of violent crimes including cases involving threats of violence.
- 2. The facts set forth in this Affidavit are based on my own personal knowledge; information obtained from other individuals during my participation in this investigation, including other law enforcement officers; review of documents and records related to this investigation; communications with others who have personal knowledge of the events and circumstances described herein; and information gained through my training and experience.
- 3. Because this Affidavit is submitted for the limited purpose of establishing probable cause in support of a criminal complaint, it does not set forth each and every fact that I, or others, have learned during the course of this investigation.

² Google is based in Mountain View, California. According to records obtained from Google, this Gmail account is subscribed to in COLASURDO's name. This and other emails were obtained by the Los Angeles Police Department via a search warrant related to a separate investigation of online threats made by Colasurdo against Los Angeles-based news and media reporters.

SUMMARY OF PROBABLE CAUSE

Threatening Social Media Posts.

- 4. On March 16, 2019, the FBI received a tip from a concerned citizen about social media posts by CHASE BLISS COLASURDO over Instagram and other social media outlets. The FBI and the United States Secret Service conducted an investigation in response to this tip. The agents located a publically viewable Instagram account with the user/handle name of "Chase Bliss Colasurdo." This account has numerous posts depicting images of COLASURDO, including selfies and other photographs, along with textual references, making clear that he is, in fact, the user of the account.¹
- 5. On February 26, 2019, COLASURDO sent an email from his Gmail account to five different media outlets and news agencies stating, "I'm going to personally Execute [White House Senior Advisor J.K.] for his countless treasonous crimes."2
- 6. On February 27, 2019, COLASURDO posted on his Instagram account a picture of a hand pointing what appears to be black handgun directly at a photograph of J.K.'s head. In the comments section, COLASURDO wrote, "Mossad can sneak in your house and take a picture. . . . This sneaky mossad agent has never been so serious about something as he is about putting a bullet in [J.K.'s] brain. It must be done."
- 7. On February 27, 2019, COLASURDO posted on his Instagram account a picture of himself holding what appears to be a black handgun. In the comments section, COLASURDO wrote, "I made a death threat against [J.K.] yesterday and I have not been arrested yet. Almost like I have special forces murdering anyone trying to fuck with me or something. . . . By the way I do still plan on personally executing him, ideally."

- 8. On March 14, 2019, COLASURDO posted on his Instagram account a picture of J.K. and his wife, along with the comment: "They are far more dangerous than cockroaches and should be executed."
- 9. On March 4, 2019, COLASURDO posted a picture of D.T. Jr. on his Instagram account. In the comments section, COLASURDO wrote, "I would just like to let the secret service know that I am going to Execute this faggot. And there is nothing you can do about it, as indicated by the fact that I have been posting death threats against politicians for like a week and am still here posting."

B. Interview of Colasurdo on March 19, 2019.

- Officer Scott Miller, and United States Secret Service Agent Doug Robertson interviewed COLASURDO at his residence in Kent, Washington, in reference to the above threatening communications. COLASURDO claimed that someone hacked his account and made the specific threatening posts described above. He further stated that he had no plan to hurt anyone and that any photographs of him with firearms would actually be BB guns. COLASURDO was asked if there would be any more social media posts containing threats, and he said, "No."
- 11. During the interview, COLASURDO stated that he was previously diagnosed with Paranoid Schizophrenia at a mental facility following his arrest in 2015. He stated that he was not currently taking any medications or seeing a mental health professional. COLASURDO also admitted that he was a regular user of marijuana. COLASURDO made several seemingly delusional comments about the Israeli intelligence service Mossad, including that the Mossad was trying to kill him and was using an electromagnetic weapon against him. COLASURDO also made numerous anti-Semitic comments expressing hostility against Jews.

C. Colasurdo's Continued Threatening Communications.

12. Since the above-referenced interview, COLASURDO has continued to make threats using social media and his email account against Jews and public figures. For example, on March 25, 2019, COLASURDO posted a photo of himself holding what appears to be a black handgun with the caption: "It's Time To Start Bombing Synagogues." As recently as April 29, 2019, he reposted on Instagram a photograph taken at the funeral for the victims of the recent California synagogue shooting with the comment: "We need to bomb synagogues." COLASURDO is also presently being investigated by the Los Angeles Police Department for cyberstalking and threatening to kill multiple Los Angeles-based news and media reporters.

D. Colasurdo's Recent Purchases and Attempted Purchases.

- 13. Based on a review of COLASURDO's emails received at his abovereferenced Gmail account, I am aware that between April 3, 2019, and April 10, 2019, he received emails confirming his purchase of the following items:
 - Bulletproof Baseball Cap;
 - Level IIIA Bulletproof Vest T-Shirt Concealable Kevlar Body Armor;
 - Level III Rifle Plates Rifle Armor;
 - Level II Rifle Armor Backpack;
 - Concealable gun holster for a Sig Sauer SP2022 handgun; and
 - Six boxes containing 50 rounds of 9mm ammunition.
- 14. On April 3, 2019, COLASURDO attempted to purchase a Sig Sauer SP2022 9mm semi-automatic pistol online from the Sportsman's Warehouse for the price of $549.00. Several days after COLASURDO made the payment, the firearm purchase was denied due to a flag entered by the U.S. Secret Service into the NICS database system. Thereafter, on April 16, 2019, COLASURDO received an email confirming the refund of the purchase price.

E. Search of Colasurdo's Residence on May 1, 2019.

- 15. On May 1, 2019, at approximately 11:00 a.m., COLASURDO was arrested for the offenses listed in this Complaint. On that same day, a state search warrant was executed at COLASURDO's residence. The following items of evidentiary value were located at the residence:
 - All of the ballistic armor items referenced above in paragraph 13;
 - 345 rounds of 9mm ammunition;
 - 9mm firearm magazine loaded with rounds of 9mm ammunition;
 - Unloaded 9mm firearm magazine;
 - Firearm accessories, including optics and LED laser mounts;
 - Three firearm holsters;
 - Multiple airsoft firearms;
 - Night vision goggles;
 - Gas mask;
 - Nazi flag with swastika;
 - Framed portrait of Adolph Hitler; and
 - Books including "Hitler's Revolution" and "The Protocols of Learned Elders of Zion."

F. Colasurdo's Criminal History.

16. COLASURDO was arrested for assault on two separate occasions in 2015. Based on the review of the law enforcement and court records related to these arrests, I am aware that the assaults related to a disturbance at AMC Kickboxing in Kirkland, Washington, during which COLASURDO assaulted the owner of the business. COLASURDO told the arresting officers that he had smoked methamphetamine and marijuana, as well as drank alcohol, a few hours prior to the assault. As a result, COLASURDO was transported to the hospital for treatment. While at the hospital, COLASURDO grabbed at a police officer's gun with his left hand, attempting to remove

1	the gun from the holster. COLASURDO's right hand was handcuffed to the bed rail.
2	The officer grabbed COLASURDO's hand and COLASURDO attempted to kick the
3	officer in the face. The officer knocked COLASURDO off of the bed and again he tried
4	to grab the officer's gun with his left hand. Hospital security assisted the officer and they
5	were able to restrain COLASURDO.
6	17. King County Court records show that the assault case was diverted to the
7	King County Mental Health Court, and that COLASURDO pleaded guilty to multiple
8	counts of Assault in the Fourth Degree and Malicious Mischief.
9	CONCLUSION
10	18. Based on the foregoing, I respectfully submit that there is probable cause to
11	believe that COLASURDO committed the above-referenced offenses.
